

2012 Asia-Pacific International Symposium on Electromagnetic Compatibility & Technical Exhibition on EMC and Microwave

2012 APEMC Venue – Resorts World Sentosa, Singapore

The 2012 Asia-Pacific International EMC Symposium and Exhibition will return to its founding place Singapore, from May 21 to 24, 2012. It aims to respond to the needs and aspirations of a rising EMC community in the region, to promote excellence among its members, and to foster links to the international EMC community. Since its inception in 2006, and with regular IEEE co-sponsorship, APEMC has become a much anticipated annual event that moves among the different countries of the region and features a rich industrial exhibition to address the needs of industry.
